BIBLE GIVE-AWAY

Greetings from on the road in the USA

Our dear friends and partners, we're still marching for The Kingdom with outreaches to the lost, poor, elders, adults and kids. All of them are precious souls who the Lord our God formed with His very hands, and breathing the divine Spirit in. While living on this earth let's continue together fishing for those souls with our rods of hearts and hands, and we'll succeed!

By now, I hope you received the John Dolinschi life and ministry story. (John's New Book) And didn't just store it on your bookshelves but read and receive the tasks still yet to be done for the Lord. He has sent all of us as one person on the Gospel field.

Thanks for being a part of us for so long. What a mighty army of God we are when standing together for the white fields of Romania! I'm sure there is no one able to defeat us, for we're more than conquerors with Christ who lives in us!

Pray for us the Dolinschi family. This month we are traveling to Romania, in fact my wife and the rest of the family left two weeks ago. I myself still have a little more itinerary in the USA before leaving. I will be there by the month of June. And then comes the summer slump when churches prefer you to stay home instead of visiting them here in America. However, if some pastors from the East or North America are willing, I will visit with them, sure I will make that trip. I'm expecting and waiting for your invitation my dear brothers, pastors and friends.

The Romania book for the church is ready for distribution and I will bring it with me. I'm still willing to run for Jesus either in Romania or America. It makes little difference when the work is done by the will of our Lord. I equally love the people and the souls of the men. My inner fabric is made not to discriminate against any living body around me.

Evangelism and Discipleship are a two-unit part working together that is used to create new churches and outreaches. Here, this time I will highlight the Urziceni ministry led by Pastor Constantin Gramada and his leadership team who really love testimonial witnessing.

These testimonies come out of the following outreach branches:*

Public evangelism, Bible distribution, water baptisms, our teams ministering in a church set, disciple and equipping all the believers in Christ.

While blessings hungry people with Bibles, an older man kissed it, and said he never hold one in his hand but now he owns one. What a miracle I have here! When he opened and looking inside, he confessed that for the first time he feels very sinful and lost. We prayed for him, and he felt the joyful presence of God over him, then said now here for the very first time I feel very happy.

Discipleship are a two-unit part
working together*

For some days we held street evangelistic outreaches, sometimes, communicated just by prayer for anyone asking for it. At times, the Holy Spirit leading us to the right people in need of someone to touch them by the love of God. We teamed up by twos the believers in the group. We went about meeting people and asking if they wanted a blessing prayer or they may have a special request to pray for them to the God of heaven.

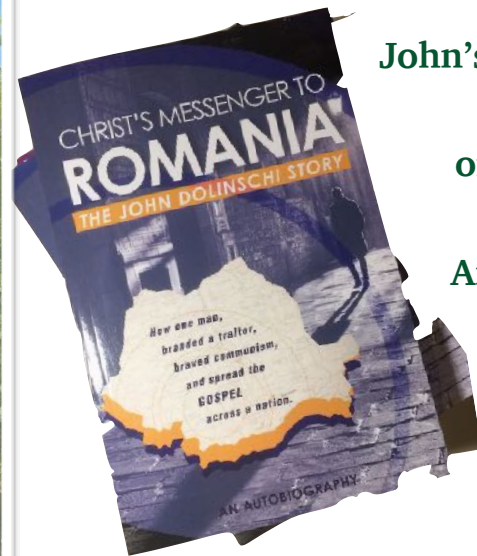

We prayed for many people in need. Along the way we prayed for a lady asking us to pray for her son who left her home a couple of days ago and promised her that this time at the end of his trip he would commit suicide. He kissed her and said good bye and run out of the house. We prayed for her son to return home safely and sound. The following Sunday she came to the church and witnessed in tears that the second day after receiving prayer for her son, he returned home safely, and his mind was changed. He declared that for some strange reason he couldn't kill himself and decided to continue his life as bad as it was. Now he has the guts to go on living while expecting new changes.

Pastor Constantin tells that these sorts of love action tasks, to get out to find the lost souls, are becoming regular programs. We get out to find the lost, the needy and depressed. We look for those who are looking for a miraculous God around them, and usually never find a minister of God who cares for them.

Here in our region is a very dry land where little living water springs up. The churches and ministers around the area are just a rarity, and in most places and locations, we're at our very beginning. Pray for the harvest reapers as the land is very thirsty and hungry to hear God's Word proclaimed. We invite as many of you to stand behind this project with us, we need you and you need us here.

These project to be done well will consume a few thousands dollars that includes buying Bibles. In the light of such great poverty we just don't dare put a Bible in their hands without bring food for meals, and some clothing for the family.

This is the work we still plow and till in Romania, and this is going on all over the places where we minister. This is a masterpiece of the ministry, reaching the lost and the needy and the hungry souls of Romania.

God's mercies and blessing follow you all the days of your life,

Love for the Lord and you,
John and Viorica Dolinschi
