

Thank the Lord for all of you who are reading this letter! I feel privileged and blessed to have you as my friends to partner with all the way to Romania.

This November 2011 is a Thanksgiving month. All of us should be thanking the Lord Jesus, for we're truly blessed and have all the reasons to be thankful. I am extra thankful to our dear brothers and sisters who financial stretch themselves in bad times and good to continue to give. I see this as a Kingdom blessing that comes from living a life of faith and love.

Because we work together as a family, today Romania is a lot better off, spiritually, physically and even materially. We are breaking the generational curse and seeing God's Kingdom come, person by person, village by village, town by town, region by region.

I want to share some letters that I receive from the Pastors that I work with.

I'm Ludovic and Diana Veres, Pastor of the River of Life church of Orsova, a new planted church on the Bay of Danube River, (this mid-size city had no church built here on the foundation of Christ.)

Pastor John Dolinschi is known to me, my family and the church as an apostle here, from the beginning we'd known him as a true humble brother, friend and father who personally cares about you and the people he comes in contact with. He really cares for the souls of men. We've known him by our regional Pastor Milo who is Pastor's John's spiritual son. I have seen the strong father-son relationship between them, and I'm impressed. This is what we leaders should be in Christ and set a pattern for others to follow. They both are passionate and concerned about the city people who do not know Christ. John encourages us to pray, gain passion for the unsaved souls, and even draws plans how to reach the city and establish a power house embassy that the Kingdom of God may be revealed and made known through the living church of Christ.

PASTORAL NATIONAL CONFERENCE

John ministers in our church here and there, but always takes us to a new spiritual level of knowing Christ personally, and for him each one in the congregation is very important in the ministry. We're being really blessed by the seminars brother John had held here about the fatherhood, and the importance in making disciples and raising sons in the ministry, and consequently, the manifestation of the Kingdom of God through the sons and daughters of the Kingdom.

We're truly challenged to live according to the will of God, and because of it, we are seeing, in Orsova, great results as people are hungry to submit to God. The people want His fatherhood leadership so they can be sent out to do the Kingdom work. We are experiencing a constant growth and ministries expanding in the church.

This fall, Bishop John was here for my ordination. I was ordained as the lead pastor, along with my spiritual father in faith, Pastor Milo, and by whom I'd the privilege to know John. Along with them was Pastor Curtis Lengefeld and his wife from New Mexico, and other pastors from Oltenia.

The Word, John preached was powerfully to change everyone but specially me, my wife Diana and our son Nando. It was a ministerial and prophetic word, and taught us step by step how to serve passionately the Lord and His people. And once the biblical order is set up, the ministries in the church should explode and effectively reach the unsaved, the poor, the orphan and the lost kids and the youth of our city, and even the young girls who're forced into prostitution.

It's an honor to host Bishop John in our home. We kept him speaking as we kept learning, we wanted to make use, and treasure the values of this man.

We love John and keep him in our prayers that the whole plan of God be fulfilled in his life.

On October 22, we held a powerful pastors conference organized by Pastor John. Our guest speaker was Bishop Richard Heard from Texas.

This was the most powerful conference we ever had so far, this man of God brought us to tears and joy at the same time. Truly our hearts and ministries have been enlarged by Bishop Heard anointing and powerful word that came to us like an arrow that hits the core of your heart.

After this one conference, we are no longer be the same, but expecting a rival and not just a few pastors and churches but the whole of Romania.

Here is Pastor Relu Testimony

I'm so happy to be given this opportunity to express myself on paper about the works of CCFR, in which I can't overlook this man of God, John Dolinschi. I want my own words to reflect the reality and my sincere heart to be revealed in it.

When I'm thinking about, CCFR, The Pastoral Fellowship, I think about John, Milo, Iuliu and Costel, but we all know the engine of this outgoing ministry is brother John.

It is a true privilege for me to have known him personally, but much more to be known by him, and personally to have him as a spiritual father and real close friend. Since I met him, I realized that I'm seeing a man who knows how to give himself sacrificially as a friend and father to many. By the love in his heart, he easily draws pastors close to him. This is not just in the large seminars or national conferences when it's hard to say „No” to him, but knowing him personally is even better than anything else, he is not only a very close friend, but from the very first he behaves like you have known him for a long time. John speaks prophetically, tells you where you are in Christ, even when he names your failures he does it in pure love and with a humble heart. We always love to have him in the several churches I pastor and oversee. Whenever he is able to be with us, a flood of joy overwhelms me.

Recently he made us aware, who we are in Christ, our real name, and the authority we exercise in Christ. I do believe the Devil was scared off as we picked up our true identity in Him, and we all centered ourselves in Christ.

Being around John and watching him, I moved away from the religious traditions I was caught up with. I feel delivered from our pentecostal legalised as holly traditional laws, that for some it became the way of salvation only.

I don't know what we'll do without daddy John, as I see him working tirelessly for us, I'm inspired and empowered to do the same for those I'm serving in Christ. I want to be a true father to others the same way he does. And I'm fully aware of what I'm writing here, I describe here less than my heart holds for this man of God, and spiritual father.

LIFE CENTER, Timisoara, Report

In these last few months, many of our Life Center student body are continuing their studies, in colleges, universities and different other social jobs training programs. This last year of schooling all are students in the universities passed and made high grades. The ones they finished, graduated successfully, above ours and theirs expectations. We believe this success was because we are a family that keeps one another inline and we pray, encourage and support one another.

Vacation time for them was wonderful as well, they got into many summer activities, like summer camps, volunteering in hospitals and nurseries, but some went home to help their parents or the families gather in the summer and the fall farming harvest.

For those who stayed over the summer time, here we had a variety of outreaches and activities.

Students were involved in street ministry work, feeding and evangelism, we offer errands work for poor families or single mothers, to care for their kids and let them take a day off, and garden work, like harvesting the corn. This past summer we had a large number of new applicants. We only have room for half.

Life Center students visiting a hospital

Most of them came from the region of Oltenia, the south Serbian border where we're intensely evangelize and plant churches.

Not all the time is easy, like for this man's story that in spite of all our doubts ended happily.

We focused a lot of time and special attention for Laurentiu Sirca who came from the state orphanage with a light mental disability, he should have graduated a year ago, but we gave him longer time as he hardly integrated socially and professionally. We worked a lot with him to keep a job, as he repeatedly dropped one by one. But at last he matured and has a job he's holding on to. He ended up saved in Christ as a lost lamb ends up in the hands of the shepherd.

And the last thing needed for him is an apartment, he lives with two other graduates who have graduated successfully from the program, so his training continues.

time on his studies, so he can fulfill his life dream and passion.

This summer we encouraged and helped him to work with other more experienced architects in the city, to practice his learning and also get some income. He needs the money for next years expences.

He just finished a house project for which he made the blue print, started building it himself, and by now is finished. All the while he got a little advise here and there from the experienced friends he made before.

But in the process he was also assisted by other of Life Center students who were also involved into construction work, and

Testimony of Grigore Ozon

We have a good testimony of Grigore who is in the Life Center since about two years ago

He is a student at the university of arts and architecture.

He comes out from a family of seven kids, a poor country family that financially are unable to support the higher education of their children. So, we accepted him, and encouraged him, to set full then helped to build it, this way making money they needed too.

As a consequence our LC classroom became a laboratory building center of design innovations and arts building studies. It is just fun to work with them.

ALMOST DONE

Pastor Milo Novacovici:

Our Prevention and Rescue Center operates in Oltenia, the most poor area of Romania. Many of our Life Center Timisoara kids come by the way of the PRC, kids who are needing immediate rescue and life saving.

Crina is a girl that come from a very poor family. Her parents have no jobs and her father has a life threatening health problems. Their home is without electricity and water. Crina is a smart girl but at times the poverty overwhelms her. This year she enrolled in High School but the expenses were too much for her.

Our desire is to help her, if not she might be forced to abandon her further schooling. This could lead to her become a victim at the hands of traffickers who are roaming the area.

Painful but real needs. This is what we confront day by day. The need is overwhelming for us.

Each one of us must get involved, from Romania or America, within our family bond of love, prayers and support.

Pastor Milo, and others can't do it alone, John can't do it alone, and you can't do it alone, and Life Outreach International, James Robison can't do it alone, we have to stay together as the children of Christ, and only then we encounter miracles of rescuing, saving lives for eternity. Let's help her together to follow her dream for a better life! Each life of these little lambs are important.

That is one of the good reasons the Lord asked me to invest in church planting, and leadership training.

These new churches and pastors even at the beginning may start very poor, but they become life rescuers and a real blessing to their villages and towns. If they begin simply to touch people with the love of Jesus, and there is someone who really cares for them, this is sufficient that one be rescued out of the evil hands and saved by our good Lord.

Then they will increase their commonwealth blessing until the whole town gets changed and prospers.

PASTORS CONFERENCES, A NEED TO GO FOR...

Here I want to conclude by thanking Bishop Heard for being with us for the National Pastors Conference in Sibiu.

Pastor Heard is a man who truly sacrifices his life for Christ Jesus. I feel I do so little compared to this man of God, traveling and working tirelessly, without breaks. On his way to us he came from Africa, in one week two nations and two continents. For him this is going week by week, while on Sundays preaches to the church he serves in Houston. I was inspired and strengthen to do more, as he always looks happy and fresh, and ready to bless others. There is no doubt of the anointing he carries within, as you feel God's presence in the room where he is just simply sitting there.

About one hundred pastors were so blessed and raised up in the Lord, as they were witnessing around, we felt like heaven on earth. They will never be the same, they already changed personally between them and the Lord and their ministries will follow.

Thanks to all of you who came to Romania with us, first through your prayers and support. Once you do something like this you're an active part of what is accomplished here for the Kingdom.

Also my thanks to those who made it personally to Romania, we need all of you, your work there with us was not in vain, but prospered in the Lord, either you came, send money or both.

Allow me to say a heart deep THANK YOU! I pray you'll be multiplied in all His Blessings.

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving Day,

John & Viorica Dolinschi
