

Newsletter of May 2024

The grace is the good news offered by Emanuel to each one of us “The Lord is with us”. Now and here, Emanuel is fully accessible and reachable to each one who sincerely invites His living presence with us. While hearing and discerning His voice, enjoying His unspeakable freedom by a healthy celebratory joyful heart. This is all about Jesus embodied as the grace of God for us drawing God’s favoring mercy to cover us on everything.

Here following a personal ministry letter, presenting CCFR team:

When we’re in a live relationship with the Lord we will be possessing the fulness of life regardless of any life circumstances. This will be expanded in the new book I just wrote “Relationships are God’s Idea” “how we relate to God, how He relates to us, and how we relate to each other”.

If you’ll be reading it in a spirit of mediative prayer, surely, this should settle you if you’re still in there, your heart firmly resolved in the Word of God. My prayer for you before the Lord is to live today God’s very best, the sooner the better for you and all of yours around you, either family, friends, or neighbors.

I know the Lord himself hastened me to write this book and gave me no rest until the work of each day was done, it took about three months to finish it while as usually attended to the needs of the people either here or in Romania. Rather, my time looked as I was back in my Romanian army required term, but this time greater as now I was incorporated in the army of the Lord. While writing each day I was automatically awoken exactly at 4 AM, and for a few hours the word was just flowing while my hand was typing. But after I finished it, without a self-resolution my morning sleeping time was extended up to a couple hours more. Again, writing this book I deeply learned the lesson that was pending inside my head. First thing our Lord looks for the most consecrated available people, and not because being highly educated or got a popular known name.

Please let me first honor here, Joseph Giuffrida, Jr. my book editor, though, for this early Spring season he told me that he is in a very busy season but promised to do his very best not laxing too far behind me. But instead, when we start working, he came tapping me from behind, likely pushing me to write it quicker. Now I knew between the two of us was the Lord’s alignment timing while silently praised the Lord that He striped us together like in a conveyor’s belt. Thanks to Jesus for this great man of God who offered himself to serve like all the other CCFR team members we have now or in the past. Each one asked me how they could help, ready to assist me in the ministry. When

I started writing my first book, I wondered who should be my book editor? Just then brother Joe from nowhere called me and introduced himself who is he, was just interested in a future visit in Romania. Then my mind information processed out about book editing and he confirmed me that he is an author of several books, and a qualified editor as well. Yes John, sure I am here just to help you with your book, so next to now Joe visited Romania through the books.

He didn't ask to pay for his editorial and publishing job but considering if only the Lord provides. He both contacted me and behaved exactly as all the other CCFR team members did in the past. It will be beneficial for you to know Rev. Joseph Giuffrida. However, Joseph and Staci got a few kids who needs providential bread on their family table, as always, I do honor the hard work financially too, even though I may be needing to share it from our own family providential blessing, sure we do it as the Lord leads and provides. Now, you may consider sharing the burden, supporting Joseph Giuffrida family as well.

Our Ministry Team

Bob & Millynn Brown

Next, I do remind you here about our confided long-time helper Millynn, the wife of our CCFR office director and printer, my late friend Bob Brown. Millynn, continued his commitment to us, picking up part of the ministry responsibility; she edits and mails our high-quality newsletter as you're reading it. However, she reminds me that she is a volunteer and thus refusing to get any bonus support, though I'm trying to bless this precious committed widowed lady, at least with an annual thank you bonus. But we should have her on our prayer list as well, thanks.

Like Lowell and Sally Senitz, though Sally was more likely a full time CCFR worker, she had always shoved away any financial bonus as she wanted only the heavenly reward and was very determined on it.

Nevertheless, I remind you here about our printing shop owner Craig Musgravers, in Mineola, TX, who after his trustee shop manager Bob died, he took it to himself to continue to print our newsletter, to honor his own lost friend Bob.. Craig knew very well that CCFR was a precious soul pearl in Bob's heart. Sure, I do send timely bonuses to Craig to help with printing expenses.

Some of you may wonder where the special Romania fund is spent, now, look to the overall of these extra expenses. As we do always save money from our own personal expenses to make sure all these dear people to us are blessed too, and kept active and happy reaching them by and acting love as well. Here just an illustration for you; Our traveling agent is our longtime friend Mr. Ahmed Mohamed as you see Ahmed is a Muslim. However, here and there he supported financially our ministry to Romania too.

I do encourage you to purchase your flight traveling tickets through him, he deals out the lowest prices tickets for us.

Specially, while we're in Romania while doing traveling ministry, the special Romania fund rescued out the poorest families as we visit them on our reach out journeys, here included the diligent leaders as they do the same ministry as we do. Just on this last Spring while in Romania we gave away about four thousand dollars from this special Romania fund or wherever most needed account, but partly adding from our own pocket money as well. As sister Lindsay used to say, the people who emptied their pockets are returning all well back to America. I do remind here Freda Lindsay of CFN urging her mission's traveling team to check out their own pockets emptying them while in Romania, not much cash left in their luggage just to make sure they will stay safe over the Atlantic Ocean. What a great woman for God causes she was, she laid everything for Him!

John, Viorica & Christina
Dolisnchi

Nonetheless, I do credit my own family team in as well, without Viorica my wife, and Christina our daughter, I wouldn't have been able writing this book so quickly and efficiently, as they took off part of the home and ministry burdens. Because as always, my priority is to minister to the people needs, solving my daily commitments first and only if time permits, I'm writing books or spending time on other pleasant hobbies. However, Christina, our baby daughter lately is assisting me in the ministry, taken a part of CCFR office duties while Viorica oversees the whole thing, making sure that all the work is done well and on the scheduled time.

As most of you may know, our son Nathan is still in Germany on his last year geology doctorate, soon waiting for him to join our team both here in America and in Romania. And our first daughters, Alina and Nadine, both were married several years ago. But Sami and Alina got two little girls, Marigold 6, and Evelyn 2, they are our precious pearl granddaughters playing with us.

Now speaking about you, our supporters, while reading this letter, you are the most important in our ministry team as you're the huge blessing behind the scenes. You are like the engine under the car hood, without you the tires of this ministry may not be rolling out to reach the needy souls of Romania! And as a thank you token, honoring you, I will mail a copy of the relationship book to each one of you who supported CCFR over the year of 2024, regardless of the donation size or if you did regularly or sporadically. You'll get the book right after the first print, supposedly, by the end of May.

But I do believe you're going to read it and praying that through God's Spirit you'll capture a well-known distinctive relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ.

Suceava Church Plant

Next months, we'll recover the Romania's mission field stories. Now, featuring a new home church start in Suceava, on the north-east up the Ukrainian border, though still small but every believer is involved into the practical outreach ministries. I called it the apostolic missionary church of the north. They do reach the family, the poor, the abandoned kids and makes the sick people feel not alone, as well bringing deliverance to the State locked prisoners becoming free in Christ Jesus. Also, another church started on the far south on the border of Bulgaria, got the same vision, reaching out to help others, share and preach the good news to everyone.

The books previously I wrote had been a source of inspiration to these pioneer leaders to do it as the primitive church fellowshipped and did. Then the boldness of the Spirit dares them up to do the work of the Kingdom of God as the Holy Spirit leads them.

Awhile this May letter emphasis was to take the behind scenes team into the account who inspired all this work of God to be accomplished in Romania. And this is you, who stays ready extended and expanding to help and bless Romanian people to know Jesus Christ and make Him known to others!

Thanks for your prayers and support!
